

PASTOR’S NOTES

‘Coming to his senses’ —
‘a pearl of great prize’

In this Sunday’s Gospel story of the Prodigal Son, the youngest son discovered a ‘pearl of great prize’ — his father’s merciful love!!

As you remember the youngest son got his inheritance early, left his father and family for a far-off land where he wasted his inheritance on raunchy living. Scripture say, ‘he came to his senses’ and returned home a repentant son. In turn his father restored him to sonship and celebrated with the fattened calf.

This is a classic story that embodies the sacrament of Reconciliation — repentance meets mercy and new life begins.

It seems the key line in the story of the prodigal son is – “coming to his senses”. In coming to his senses he remembers what he had learned from his days of religion – that God’s mercy trumps justice! Human justice would say he only deserved to be treated like one of the hired workers. But he places his hope in what he had been taught to believe and returns home to experience a lavishness he would never had expected. This is what Christ teaches – God’s merciful love is without limit (e.g.- 7 times 70 times forgiveness).

‘Coming to his senses’ is a code word for examining one’s conscience. Conscience is that voice of God that lies within each of us that speaks of virtuous living and holiness of life. It is that voice of the 10 Commandments and the Beatitudes. It is that voice of the Gospel parables and healing miracles. It is that voice of God’s Church and its many teachings about the pre-eminent place of God above all else, the treasures of the sacraments, the sanctity of life, the sacredness of sexuality, the stewardship of resources, the beauty of truth and the glory of love.

When we violate the voice of the Lord (conscience) we find ourselves in far-off lands like the prodigal son. When we ‘hit the wall’ this voice of God is awakened and we become aware of our sinful ways. This voice reminds us of God’s relentless love in the face of sin. Our confession of sinful ways and disgraceful living unleashes the wellspring of the Father’s merciful love. This dynamic of confession and absolution stands at the very heart of the sacrament of Reconciliation.

But, there is also the story of the older son in the story of the Prodigal Son where self-righteousness has blinded him from seeing his contempt for his father, his hatred for his brother, and his replacing grace-filled religion with secular notions of justice. Failing to ‘come to his senses’ he lives in a far-off land and abandonment to the world of sin.

Blessed is the younger son who ‘came to his senses’, acknowledged his deviant ways, confessed his sins, and received an abundance of new life (i.e., sandals for his feet, a ring for his finger and a cloak for his back).

Blessed are they who avail themselves to the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

This week’s Stewardship moment:

“No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.”
~ Joshua 5:12
Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God’s blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.
